Brief Synopsis

Current Situation as of 1000 hrs (CORRECTION)

There are less than 10 people on Parliament Hill and approximately 300 people in the Wellington/Elgin corridor. Our traffic perimeters remain unchanged and we continue to hold the area encompassed from Wellington/Bay to Rideau/Sussex and south to Albert St. We hold the area of Sussex and Mackenzie from Murray to Rideau. There are periphery filtering traffic points at SJAM/Booth; Rideau/Dalhousie and Colonel By/Daly.

43 OPS officers
26 OPP officers - (13 static units)
14 RCMP officers - (7 static units)
3 Cornwall - (3 static positions)

There are no Community Engagement Teams deployed at this time. Available traffic resources were pulled from enforcement to supplement shortages at the inner perimeter. ESU will be staggered in deployment for operations as required and supplement to our inner cordon resources.

PLT resources have since been temporarily stood down as a consequence of the assertive enforcement actions. This is currently being reassessed for re-engagement.

There are ongoing fuel intercepts happening through the morning hours. All have been completed without incident. One intercept did not occur as a result of crowd size and dynamics.

The SCC is continuing to work on a sustainable staffing plan for continued operations.
